5. [redacted] Molly Saguto, in the office of Representative Samuel Stratton (D., N. Y.), called on behalf of a constituent interested in employment possibilities and I suggested she contact [redacted] Office of Personnel, when she has [redacted] schedule. [redacted] office was alerted. 25X1 25X1 25X1
6. [redacted] On referral from Colgate Prentice, called Edith Waskewich, Department of State, who informed me that State's proposed legislation establishing a Commission on International Broadcasting, on which we had commented to OMB on 6 March, has not yet been transmitted to the Hill. 25X1
7. [redacted] Bill Schneider, Legislative Assistant to Senator James Buckley (R., N. Y.), called and left a message that he had some information for me to be picked up at his office. 25X1
8. [redacted] Senator Barry Goldwater's (R., Ariz.) office called and asked if we would send application forms and employment brochures to a constituent [redacted] [redacted] Office of Personnel has been advised. 25X1 25X1 25X1
9. [redacted] Called Jim Calloway, Counsel to the Senate Appropriations Committee, and told him that the Director had agreed to come up and brief the Defense Subcommittee or the Intelligence Operations Subcommittee (whichever the Chairman prefers) on the threat as Calloway had suggested. I told him our only request was that we be given at least a week's advance notice as to the date of the briefing. Calloway said this was fine and added that he plans to take this up with Chairman McClellan this evening. 25X1
